

Socialist Educational Association

President: Professor Richard Pring

The aims of the SEA are:

- to promote a comprehensive, non-selective education service based on equality of opportunity and lifelong access to excellent provision throughout the UK, within which compulsory education is free, well resourced and under local democratic control
- to influence the development of progressive education policies through the Labour Party and to work with other like minded bodies
- to promote an international and inclusive perspective to education

The policy of the SEA is made at its Annual Conference. Between conferences the SEA is run by its officers and NEC, who are elected annually. NEC meetings are held at different venues around the country. SEA also organises occasional conferences on topical issues. All members are welcome to attend the Conferences and NEC meetings. Some areas have active SEA branches. The SEA Newsletter, 'EDUCATION POLITICS', provides a national forum for comment and analysis of all current educational issues.

Affiliation to the SEA is open to national organisations as well as Labour Party branches, CLPs, Labour Groups, Trade Unions and their branches
